I'm an Animator who now lives in London (UK) but are willing to move everywhere. I've been working in this area since 2006 (in 3D animation, before in graphic 2D) and I'm interested in all kind of video productions (commercials, shorts, videogames, tv series and movies).

"Snowflake - the white gorilla" feature film 90'

3D Animation+live action (7 seconds per day)

a Fonsagrada Production (Bren Entertainment studio) for FILMAX international.
Santiago de compostela (SPAIN).

I'm responsible of animation of all the characters and props in the reel, but not tracking camera movement that it was real live.
