"Fabiana joined us to animate on a 30" spot for DUMRU.ru . The deadline was very tight but Fabiana was able to pull off some incredibly sweet and lively animation, leaving both the client and the entire team very happy with the results. Also, it was quite a pleasure to work with her, always happy and participative. I hope we can get her to work with us again in a very near future."

"Fabiana was part of my previs team on a very tough show. I routinely relied on her animation skills to bring our characters to life. She has a particular talent for developing personality through animation, even with simple previs rigs. Her camerawork improved greatly in a very short amount of time, and she is happy to learn new skills and techniques. Furthermore, she knows how to dig in and get a job done with a hard deadline--and we didn't have anything except hard deadlines on this project."
